

National Mall Education Offerings 2002

Curriculum-based programs to meet curriculum goals

Creation of the National Mall: This program introduces students to the history and layout of the National Mall and its major landmarks.

Grade 3

Thomas Jefferson Memorial: This program looks at the contributions of Thomas Jefferson to the development of the United States and incorporates the symbolism of the Memorial to those contributions.

Grade 5

Washington Monument: This program examines the prominent role of George Washington in the establishment of the United States and includes a visit to the Monument built to honor the man and his accomplishments.

Grade 5

I Have a Dream: This program introduces students to Martin Luther King's famous speech and allows them to participate in a reenactment of that day at the Lincoln Memorial.

Grade 5—Offered in January and February only.

Speaking Out in Washington, D.C.: This program acquaints students with the freedoms provided all Americans by the First Amendment.

Grade 5

Lincoln Memorial: This program explores the character and legacy of Abraham Lincoln, emphasizing his presidency and how the Memorial reflects that legacy.

Grade 8

Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial: This program uses art to explore two significant aspects of the Roosevelt administration—the Great Depression and the New Deal. Students can see how art tells the story of the Roosevelt presidency with a visit to the FDR Memorial.

Grades 8-11

Korean War Veterans Memorial: This program looks at the situation surrounding the Korean War and its place in history. The Memorial serves as the starting point from which to gain a better understanding of the Korean War and why it is often called the "Forgotten War."

Grades 8-11

Vietnam Veterans Memorial: This program examines the Vietnam War era and the creation of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial as a healing tool.

Grades 8-11
